Marcia.

Hark amidst the throng of cheers It's the Aviation Volunteers

We are leaving U.S.A. On our airplanes at break of day

A - wait in Joffre's land A - midst the shot and shell the cannons roar

For the Old Red, White and Blue They go sailing staunch and true With the Allies in their band;

General Pershing and his brothers one and all

Think boys of Sixty-One Of what our forefathers done

Can't you hear the bugle call? No use delaying on
